

Cha Cha Slide Google: What It Is and How This Fun Trick Works

Google is known for its various surprises. From the hidden games to playful animations, you can often get a special Easter eggs that entertain millions of Google users. Among them, it is one of the most enjoyable is the funny way, is called a Google trick.

If you have ever heard about it or seen people talking about it online, then you might be wondering what it is and how it works.

Don't worry, this blog will clear every doubt of yours.

What is The Cha Cha Slide Google Trick?

It is the fun Easter egg that is hidden inside Google searches. When you search for the phrase or keyword Cha Cha slide in Google, a small animated icon will appear on the screen. After that, when you click on it, your Google page starts dancing and moving in different directions. It is just like the moves in the popular song Cha Cha Slide by DJ Casper.

Every time you click on the icon, Google performs the exact move according to the song. It is like your Google search is following the exact dance instructions, which makes the easter egg so entertaining

A Quick Introduction to the Song

You first need to know a little about the song, which will help you to understand this trick easily.

This is one of the songs that is released by the DG Casper, who is also known as Mr. C The Slide Man. It is one of the popular songs because of having catchy beat and simple dance instructions curated by the author.

It tells dancers exactly what they need to do:

“Slide to the left!”

“Slide to the right!”

“Criss-cross!”

“Everybody clap your hands!”

The steps are super simple to follow. That’s why everyone loved dancing to it. It showed up at parties and weddings everywhere. Google added the Easter egg as a fun tribute.

It became a famous song and is typically used for various events. It is very easy steps and a favorite at parties, weddings, schools, gyms, and events, not only United States, but around the world. In this context, Google creates an Easter egg as a fun tribute so that its popularity will last so a long time.

How to Activate the Cha Cha Slide Google Trick

You can activate the Chat Chat Slide Google Trick by following some easy steps as follows:

1. First, you must open Google Search
2. Type “Cha Cha Slide” in the search bar
3. Now, follow the special icon
4. Click the icon
5. After that, you must keep clicking to see more moves

Conclusion

This blog is dedicated to learning about Cha Cha Slide Google. If you still want to know, then you can click the link here.